
ANA-FILIPA DOMINGUES

PROFILE

Ana - Filipa Domingues, is an award winning film producer and stills photographer.

Filipa co-founded Fly on the Wall films in 2004 with director Bryan Garrick Little. Fly on the Wall is an award winning production company which has produced three feature documentaries and commercial work for International brands; MTV Europe, National Geographic, Discovery Channel, Adidas, Nokia, Adobe, USAID amongst others.

Her photographic work has been featured on the covers of numerous magazines including a spread in National Geographic.

Ana-Filipa's latest photography venture, "CheckMyPlants" is photographing rare and unusual plants, specifically indigenous South Africa succulents and fynbos, consciously only using natural light, waiting for the perfect light which only occurs on some days.

Featured on CNN Inside Africa "Through the lens"
Showcasing 8 unique photographers in Cape Town during lockdown.
Ana-Filipa was also invited to tell her story on the TEDx Platform.

Ahead of her first solo exhibition in September 2019, Filipa exclusively curated 4 limited-release 'CheckMyPlants' Smeg retro fridges as the ultimate collectors' items. These bespoke pieces feature her visually spectacular stills of iconic South African plants with SMEG's black retro fridge as the canvas to perfectly emulate her signature style photography.
